000 grape have been set in this county this spring.
Longwell Bro's and Broughton have each put up fine awnings in front of their stores.
Mrs. and Mr. Stan. Lett rejoice at the advent in their home of a 4-lb. boy on Sunday last.
The donkey is found, and the juveniles at the Broughton homestead are happy again.
Amos Stevens, of Battle Creek, spent Sunday with his mother and other friends in town.
Messrs. Heckert & Chandler are now "at home" in their elegant quarters in the Masonic block.
The NORTHERNER is under obligations to Mrs. B. F. Heckert, probate clerk, for official courtesies.
Mrs. Gracie Brown and Miss Nora Dickerson have uncalled for letters in the Paw Paw postoffice.
The Michigan State medical association meet in Kalamazoo on Thursday and Friday of this week.
Don't forget The King's Daughters' entertainment at the opera house tonight. Admission, free.
Edgar M. Snow and Jay Rickard report a splendid time at Lansing at the state firemen's association.
The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Seth Allen.
Last Friday morning the thermometer registered 26 degrees in this vicinity, and fears are entertained as to the safety of small fruits.
Miss Minnie Benham's friends here will be pleased to learn that she has been employed as teacher in the Battle Creek public schools.

Mrs. Jno. Walker is enjoying a visit from a sister and niece from Pennsylvania.

Miss Jennie Russell, of Lawton, has been visiting relatives and friends here for some days past.

Regular convocation of Paw Paw Chapter, No. 34, R. A. M., on Monday evening, May 13th.

The bachelors of Paw Paw, or at least as many of them as can crowd into the opera house, will bowl there next Saturday evening.

Will and Roy Buchanan were here from Saturday to Monday last on the occasion of the interment of the remains of their mother.

The Advance-Reflector was compelled to issue a supplementary sheet last week on account of a deluge of advertising. That's business.

The new Baptist church at South Haven was dedicated yesterday, Rev.
J. A. Johnston, of Kalamazoo, preaching the dedicatory sermon.

George Butlers' business has become so good that he has been obliged to buy another horse. George is worthy of all the good things that come his way.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Orr, of Rose Hill, Iowa, are visiting Mrs. C. E. Galligan and other relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mr. O. was a former resident here.

The trustees and tent holders of the Crystal Springs Campmeeting association meet at the grounds on Friday of this week for the transaction of current business.

The village assessment roll will be in the hands of Marshal Bullard on the 10th inst. Taxes must be paid within 30 days from that date or 7 per cent will be added.

Farmers are complaining bitterly of the long continued drouth, asserting that their pastures are drying up and that oats will not sprout in the ground.
Twas ever thus.

A single runaway team was the only break in the monotony of Monday, and that wouldn't have been entitled to a three-liner had it not been for the monotony aforesaid.

Russell Parker, who has been suffering from cancer in his face, went to Lawrence a few days ago and had an operation performed by which he hopes to be benefited.

Mr. S. H. Blackman arrived in town last Friday from his visit to California.
He left Pasadena April 23d and made the trip home by easy stages. He is feeling fairly well.

Mr. Molby informs us that the work on the new Glendale school house is progressing satisfactorily and that, when completed, they will have a school house of which the district may well feel proud.

Hereafter, before he throws his 238 lbs. avoirdupois upon a seat over the excavation for a basement window, J.
E. Showerman will test its strength.
Or, is he practicing with a view of soon "flying out" with somebody?

Property owners in the northern and northeastern parts of the village have been revising their quotations on prices of vacant lots. They claim that the advent of the S. I. & O. railway will double the value of their holdings.

A rumor was current in town last Friday that little Freddie, son of S. T.
Bowen, of Battle Creek, was dead and that his remains were to be brought here for burial Saturday. The NORTH-ERNER was happy to find no foundation for the rumor.

Judge Heckert will go to South Haven Friday and give a hearing on the petition for the appointment of a guardian of the person and estate of Mary Shanton, an alleged incompetent, and will transact any other business which may come before him.

A sunflower concert will be given at the Baptist church, on Friday evening, May 10th, for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid society. A mill tree has been imported for the occasion and will be exhibited and its occupants described.
Admission, 10 cents.

The government dredge is at South Haven, but finds little or nothing to do.
Indeed, it is now admitted on all hands to be the best harbor on the east shore of the lake. By the way, we hear nothing from our northern neighbors recently. Have they finally subsided?

Will Dorgan, of Gobleville, was tried before Justice Rowland and a jury last Wednesday for assault and battery on Miss Connell, was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $40, including the costs, or to stand committed to the county jail for 30 days. He paid.

Broughton regrets that he is not "up in" French, so that he could give the names of a few of the many styles of hats and bonnets represented in his millinery department; but as he can't name them, he will almost allow his customers to name the price. Read his
adv. elsewhere in this paper.

A private letter from Miss Lydia L.
Conway to a friend here, is to the effect that she is located at Spokane Falls, W.
T.; is in fairly good health, and is keeping books there; is wild with delight over the country, and predicts that it is to be the Mecca of all fortune-hunters in the near future. She speaks of seeing Joe Sherman frequently. He has a good situation there and is doing well.
All of which pleasant news we are glad to chronicle.

The jury in the Latimer murder case at Jackson returned a verdict of "guilty of murder in the first degree" on Monday evening. They were out but a few minutes. On the first ballot ten voted for conviction and two blank. But on the second ballot all voted "guilty." Latimer's attorneys will make a desperate effort to save their man, and that the case will go to the supreme court is highly probable. No unprejudiced man who has read the testimony can but feel that the verdict is a just one. The penalty, under the statute, is imprisonment for life.

Miss Phoebe Grandell returned home from Decatur last Saturday, where she had been visiting for two or three weeks, the guest of Mrs. Theo. Harlan.

Our people are now reveling in such luxuries as strawberries, string beans and lettuce, and the festive cucumber with its Jamaica ginger consort will be on tap in a few days.

The Allegan papers are trying to coax the people of Kalamazoo to "put up" for the new railroad before Battle Creek steps in and secures the plum. Why, bless your innocent hearts, haven't you heard that the road is to be built to South Haven via Paw Paw?

Miss Thelma Pope, sister of Mrs. S. T.
Bowen, died at Battle Creek Monday afternoon. The remains will be buried at Prospect Hill immediately after the arrival of the train at three o'clock this (Wednesday) afternoon. Brief services will be conducted at the grave by Rev.
Taft.

Mrs. Gremps, for many years a highly respected citizen of this place, died at the home of her son, Will Buchanan, at Caro, Mich., on Wednesday last. The remains were brought here Saturday and interred at Prospect Hill Sunday, the funeral taking place at the Presbyterian church. Deceased was 73 years, 1 month and 15 days of age.

Rev. David Rood, of Covert, for many years a missionary in Africa, will deliver an address at the First Baptist church in this place next Sunday evening. He comes to us on invitation by the Ministers' association here, who wish in this way to give an opportunity to the people to hear about "the dark continent" and the work being done there.

Street Commissioner Bullard has been doing some very excellent work on the streets of this village. He has adopted a system of leaving a terrace of nine feet in width outside the rows of shade trees, and grading between the terraces so that the streets are left crowning and in good condition to receive the gravel.
If the street committee and council continue the liberal policy which has characterized them so far, Mr. Bullard will turn over to his successor in office an example in street making which it will be difficult to excel.

The State Firemen's association, in session at Lansing last week, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, L. A. Bentley, of Easton Rapids; vice-presidents, C. C. Dunham, of Cadillac, F. W. Peabody, of Albion and John Nebele, of Lansing; secretary and treasurer, W. A. Tuller, of Pontwater; statistician, O. F. Jackson, of Ithaca; representative to national convention, J. B. Bohnett, of Battle Creek. The next annual convention will be held at Cadillac on the third Wednesday in May, 1890.

On May 1st, 1849, at this place, Uriel C. Lee and Margaret Sherrod, then in the fresh bloom of young manhood and womanhood, were united in marriage by Elder Samuel Gilman, which event is duly set forth in an ancient looking document which was unearthed by the erstwhile bride on Wednesday evening of last week on the occasion of an unceremonious and unannounced visit of some seventy or eighty of the friends of the long wedded couple to their home to celebrate with them the 40th anniversary of the happy event. And it was a celebration, in everything implied in the term.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Frank S. Millington, of the Wolverine drug house, we were shown through the extensive laboratory of that concern, where is manufactured not only the various noted "Wolverine" preparations, but the thousand and one medicines, extracts, etc., of L. Perrigo & Co., manufacturing chemists. To the uninitiated the whole thing is a puzzle, and no matter how fluently your escort may discourse on the merits of the "double acting percolators," or the relative virtues of the various concoctions prepared there, the bewildered scribe can only look wise, nod at stated intervals and leave the building in a thankful frame of mind for the blessings of health.

On Thursday last Chairman Eaton, of the house military committee, reported favorably the bill providing for the establishment of a soldiers' relief commission in each county. It provides for the relief of Union soldiers, sailors and marines who, by reason of their families, do not wish to enter the home. The commission shall consist of three men, appointed by the judge of probate in each county, two of which shall be honorably discharged Union soldiers. The funds for carrying out the provisions of the bill shall be raised by tax each year and known as the soldiers' relief fund.
The bill was prepared by the legislative committee of the G. A. R., of which Judge Geo. M. Buck, of this circuit, was a member.

Probate Court Proceedings.
Following is a synopsis of the proceedings in the probate court for the week ending Monday, May 6:

Estate of Marvin and Carrie Hannahs, minors. Petition filed for license to sell real estate.

Estate of G. W. Shepard, deceased.
The commissioners appointed for the assignment of widow's dower and partition of estate among the heirs filed their report. Order entered confirming same.

Estate of Henry Lindsey, deceased.
Order entered allowing support to the widow pending settlement of estate, and assigning to her the household property.

Estate of Mary and Jane Mixamaw, minors. Final account of guardian heard and allowed.

Estate of Agnes and Teressa Moota,
heard and allowed.

Estate of Orson Olds, deceased. Final estate of administrator heard and allowed.

Estate of Dan'l J. Lee, deceased. Appraisers' warrant and inventory filed.

Estate of Cyrus E. Olds. Mary Olds, widow of deceased, appointed administratrix.
